

Laura Ritter

Lead Security Policy
Advisor, Public Policy
and Compliance
Exelon Corporation

Laura Ritter joined Exelon's Corporate Information Security Services in February 2015 and is a Lead Security Policy Advisor with the Public Policy and Compliance team. She currently focuses on industry-government coordination, internal and external policy, exercise development and execution as well as incident management strategy. Laura previously worked for 5 years supporting critical infrastructure security and resilience efforts at both the U.S. Department of Energy as well as the U.S. Department of Homeland Security. Her primary duties included a focus on public-private partnership engagement, cybersecurity, and physical security predominantly from a policy and information/intelligence exchange perspective. She also worked for 5 years in the banking and private client investment arena managing accounts for endowments, foundations, and corporations in addition to high net worth individuals and families. Laura has an M.A. in International Peace and Conflict Resolution from American University and a B.A. in International Studies and Spanish from Ohio University.

