

comparable to previously filed agreements involving indirectly interconnected small generation resources so as to be consistent with Commission precedent and Order 2006, and to file the revised ISA within 30 days of the date of this order.”³ The Commission also noted that its directive was “not intended to interfere with power factor requirements that Choptank may desire to impose on the generator; rather, it is recommended that any ISA revisions be the result of a collaborative process among PJM, Choptank and Worcester.”⁴

PJM requests an extension of time to submit the revised ISA directed by the January Letter Order because additional time is needed to confer with Worcester, Delmarva, and Choptank to appropriately revise the ISA. Accordingly, good cause exists to grant the requested extension.

For the foregoing reasons, PJM respectfully requests that the Commission expeditiously grant this request for an extension of time until March 15, 2010 for PJM to submit its compliance filing. Additionally, PJM is authorized to state that Worcester and
