Reports (1:45-3:35)

4. MC Vice Chair Report (1:45-1:55)

- PJM commenced stage 1 of the large loads CIFP process on September 15, 2025. The CIFP process is set forth by Manual 34 approved by the Members Committee as an appropriate path for consultation effectuating both the OA and CTOA requirements.
- The stage 4 CIFP meeting was held on November 19, 2025, where design elements of PJM's proposed Expedited Interconnection Process construct were presented.
- On January 16, 2026, the PJM Board issued its decisional letter to all Members (including the Transmission Owners) directing PJM to pursue, among other things, voluntary bring your own new generation commensurate with large load additions and the expedited interconnection track. No further consultation is envisioned by Manual 34.
- However, the Board did commit to provide a review of the anticipated filing language. On January 29, 2026, PJM posted and notified Members, Transmission Owners, and other stakeholders of the proposed tariff sheets reflecting the EIT proposal. On February 3, 2026, PJM engaged in a page turn of the language.

Notwithstanding this consultation, as a courtesy to Members and Transmission Owners, PJM is nevertheless providing this notice to foster continued engagement and awareness of the anticipated EIT filing. PJM appreciates Members' engagement in the CIFP process and looks forward to continued engagement with Members as we collectively implement the Board's Decisional letter and confront other key initiatives facing the industry. PJM's election to further engage on the EIT filing should not be viewed as creating precedent or future commitment by PJM to engage in a Tariff or CTOA consultation processes where not necessary under specific facts and circumstances.
