Member Community Updates

- PJM has enhanced the “Starting with PJM” section in the Member Community to provide members with a self-service guide and organized repository of material as a reference source for information.
- This enhancement provides members with a better customer experience when navigating through the requirements in all the different sectors in PJM.
- In order to gain access to the Member Community, you must first have a user account set up in Account Manager, and you can use your account to request access to the Member Community. To request access, please see the following URL:
<https://www.pjm.com/markets-and-operations/etools/member-community>

Log into the Member Community→Home→Click on Starting with PJM

Once you click on the Starting with PJM section, below is a view of what is included in the new member onboarding:
