- III. Panel discussion: Barriers and Opportunities for Battery Storage in PJM. PJM lags behind other regions in battery storage deployment, even though storage provides important capacity value and flexibility in an increasingly decarbonized system. What are the barriers to battery storage development in PJM, and what needs to happen to economically develop batteries in the PJM region?

Moderator: Claire Lang-Ree, Advocate, Natural Resources Defense Council

Panel:

- Walter Graf, Chief Economist, PJM
- Eric Miller, Executive Director of New Jersey Governor Phil Murphy's Office of Climate Action and the Green Economy
- Sergio Duenas Melendez, Storage Sector Manager, California Independent System Operator
- Don Jenkins, Chief Operating Officer, Convergent Energy and Power

The panelists provided their insights on the value of battery storage for the PJM region, the need for more battery participation in the region and the barriers for battery participation in PJM markets. A few questions from the audience were also taken.

- IV. Future Business/agenda topics/open discussion (Lipman/Lang-Ree)
 - a. Greg Poulos out the meeting and announced the next PIEOUG meeting would be Wednesday, April 14 10:30 – Noon at the PJM Annual Meeting.
