

Changes found in the June 2025 DR Hub XSD release are shown below.

Note: All users should (at a minimum) be at the January 2025 release level by June 17, 2025. Items included in this release will not be available to implementations using a prior release.

Prior to updating or replacing any XSD, backup existing versions of the current XSD and any in-house changes you've made prior to this release.

It is advisable to perform a file comparison between the XSD you are using today and the XSD you are migrating to.

Please verify all changes prior to implementation.

The June 2025 XSD changes are as follows:

Additions to Existing types are shown in green. Items removed are shown in red where applicable.
