Draft Training Plan

The 2022 draft training plan has been updated on the website and includes a mix of in-person and virtual instructor-led events. In-person training is scheduled to begin with the Operator Seminar (dates beginning in March 2022). There are no instructor-led sessions scheduled for June and July, while the training department works on migrating training content to a new Content Management System. For questions about the training schedule, please contact TrainingSupport@pim.com.

End of Year Reminders

The PJM Training Program evaluation has been added to the DTS Company Accounts in the PJM LMS. The DTS was reminded to complete this evaluation for 2021, as well as complete a review of the Task Lists. For questions related to the program evaluation or the company accounts in the LMS, please contact TrainingSupport@pim.com.

7. Additional Items from the DTS (9:30 - 9:45)

No additional items from the DTS.

Antitrust:

You may not discuss any topics that violate, or that might appear to violate, the antitrust laws including but not limited to agreements between or among competitors regarding prices, bid and offer practices, availability of service, product design, terms of sale, division of markets, allocation of customers or any other activity that might unreasonably restrain competition. If any of these items are discussed the chair will re-direct the conversation. If the conversation still persists, parties will be asked to leave the meeting or the meeting will be adjourned.

Code of Conduct:

As of November 29, 2021

As a mandatory condition of attendance at today's meeting, attendees agree to adhere to the PJM Code of Conduct as detailed in PJM Manual M-34 section 4.5, including, but not limited to, participants' responsibilities and rules regarding the dissemination of meeting discussion and materials.

Public Meetings/Media Participation:

Unless otherwise noted, PJM stakeholder meetings are open to the public and to members of the media. Members of the media are asked to announce their attendance at all PJM stakeholder meetings at the beginning of the meeting or at the point they join a meeting already in progress. Members of the Media are reminded that speakers at PJM meetings cannot be quoted without explicit permission from the speaker. PJM Members are reminded that "detailed transcriptional meeting notes" and white board notes from "brainstorming sessions" shall not be disseminated. Stakeholders are also not allowed to create audio, video or online recordings of PJM meetings. PJM may create audio, video or online recordings of stakeholder meetings for internal and training purposes, and your participation at such meetings indicates your consent to the same.
