

Current Tariff queue entry cost structure is ineffective at incenting New Service Customers to enter earlier in queue window

Issue Source

PJM identified this issue while processing New Service Customer queue requests.

Stakeholder Group Assignment

This issue will be assigned to the Planning Committee.

Key Work Activities

Remove ineffective methods and identify new methods to incentivize New Service Customers to enter the queue earlier.

- Tariff Part IV queue entry provisions; and
- PJM Manuals 14A and 14E instructions and information.

Expected Deliverables

Proposed governing document revisions.

Expected Overall Duration of Work

This expected duration of work is 3 to 6 months.

Decision-Making Method

Tier 1 consensus on the proposal is the expected decision-making method for this issue.