NAEA Rock Springs, LLC

NAEA Rock Springs, LLC (“NAEARS”) is a transmission-owning member of PJM Interconnection (“PJM”). On Jan. 1, 1998, PJM became an Independent System Operator (ISO). As a result, all transmission service requests into, through, and out of NAEARS’s transmission facilities are administered by PJM.

NAEARS is also a registered entity with Reliability First Corporation (“RFC”), which is one of the regional reliability organizations of the North American Electric Reliability Corporation (“NERC”). Registered entities are expected to adhere to the reliability standards developed and enforced by their respective regional reliability organizations.
