Agreement Superseding Language and Automatic Termination Provision

On August 26, 2021 PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (PJM) filed revisions to Attachment P (Form of Interconnection Construction Service Agreement (pro forma ICSA)) of PJM's Open Access Transmission Tariff (Tariff).¹ PJM states that the revisions to the pro forma ICSA: (1) add language to account for circumstances when an ICSA supersedes an already-effective ICSA; (2) clarify when ICSAs terminate upon completion of construction to ensure PJM and the affected parties are aware of these terminations; and (3) include other ministerial changes primarily for consistency in cross-references to other Tariff sections. PJM states that these revisions are designed to reduce administrative burdens and inefficiencies on PJM's resources devoted to its interconnection process.
