Reference: Filing to Support Interconnection Request and Feasibility Study Process

Dear Ms. Watson:

On August 31, 2016, PJM Interconnection, L.L.C. (PJM) filed revisions to Parts IV and VI of the PJM Open Access Transmission Tariff (Tariff) to revise interconnection request, deficiency review and deposit usage rules.<sup>1</sup> PJM states that the revisions are needed to alleviate delays in the interconnection process and ensure proper recovery of interconnection review and study costs from the interconnection customers initiating such requests.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to the Director, Division of Electric Power Regulation – East, under 18 C.F.R. § 375.307, your submittal is conditionally accepted on the correction of typographical errors, for filing, effective October 31, 2016, as requested. Specifically, the caption for the first transitional subsection in Part IV, Subpart A, section 36.2 should be “The following applies to Interconnection Requests received prior to October 31, 2016” and must be corrected. Additionally, the caption for the final transitional subsection in Part IV, Subpart A, section 36.2 should be “The following applies to Interconnection Requests received on or after April 1, 2017” and must be corrected.

The filing was noticed on August 31, 2016, with comments, interventions, and protests due on or before September 21, 2016. Pursuant to Rule 214 (18 C.F.R. § 385.214 (2016)), to the extent that any timely filed motions to intervene and any motion to intervene out-of-time were filed before the issuance date of this order, such interventions are granted. Granting late interventions at this stage of the proceeding will not disrupt the proceeding or place additional burdens on existing parties.

This acceptance for filing shall not be construed as constituting approval of the referenced filing or of any rate, charge, classification, or any rule, regulation, or practice affecting such rate or service contained in your filing; nor shall such acceptance be deemed as recognition of any claimed contractual right or obligation associated therewith; and such acceptance is without prejudice to any findings or orders which have been or may hereafter be made by the Commission in any proceeding now pending or hereafter instituted by or against PJM.

This order constitutes final agency action. Requests for rehearing by the Commission may be filed within 30 days of the date of issuance of this order, pursuant to 18 C.F.R. § 385.713.

Sincerely,

Kurt M. Longo, Director
Division of Electric Power
Regulation – East
